INTRODUCTION

At Light & Space continues the Glamourous Golden Gallery’s commitment to supporting Australian artists and contemporary art practice, with great delight that we present this revealing exhibition of recent painting by Michael Cassis, Argo Navis and Wendy Davis.

This publication is designed to be an introduction to their recent work, inviting the reader to consider the many possibilities that arise from these artists’ explorations of light, space and human experience.

ABSTRACT

Background

Light has always been a central component to the Australian landscape, whether it be in the pastel shades of the sun setting over the horizon, the vibrant hues of the sunset or the soft light filtering through the trees. It has always been a source of inspiration to artists, and is often used as a tool to create mood and atmosphere.

Artspace

Artspace is an arts organisation that specialises in contemporary Australian art. It is located in Sydney and is a leading institution in the field of art.

Glossary

Glossary is a collection of terms and phrases that are commonly used in the field of art. It is a tool that helps artists and art lovers to understand the terminology used in the field.

Art In Australia

Art In Australia is a magazine that covers the art scene in Australia. It is published quarterly and provides art lovers with news, reviews and articles about the Australian art scene.

Light & Space

Light & Space is an exhibition that features the works of three Australian artists: Michael Cassis, Argo Navis and Wendy Davis. The exhibition showcases their recent works, which explore the relationship between light, space and human experience.

Conclusion

At Light & Space is a celebration of the Australian art scene and the role that it plays in shaping the cultural landscape of the country. It is a testament to the talent and creativity of these artists, and a reminder of the power of art to inspire and connect us with our environment.
